TEMPLE EMANUEL

A sacred Jewish journey to enrich lives.

FROM OUR TEMPLE RABBI

Gratitude and Thanksgiving

The Jewish calendar presents opportunities to express our gratitude to God for the abundant blessings bestowed upon us. With the beauty and pageantry of the High Holy Days behind us; with joy and celebration surrounding Sukkot and Simchat Torah a recent memory, the Jewish calendar seems to provide a "lull" in activity until Chanukah. In our secular calendar, the month of November seems to focus our attention entirely on the holiday of Thanksgiving. Hopefully, we will have the opportunity to spend time with family and friends, eat turkey, watch football, eat turkey, take advantage of sales, eat turkey, rest and relay, and, did I mention, eat turkey! But too often we lose sight of the essence of Thanksgiving...to actually give thanks!

In our hectic lives we are frequently untouched by an appreciation for the countless blessings close at hand, precisely because they are so close at hand. All-too-often, we fail to see and appreciate the never-ending succession of God's unfolding kindnesses. We have the opportunity to express our gratitude and thanksgiving each and every day. To pause and take the time to verbalize and to reflect helps us appreciate the blessings we repeatedly seem to take for granted. This moment can open our hearts, as well as our eyes, to the potential each of us has to help perfect our world.

As we gather with family and friends this Thanksgiving, I invite you to reflect on an except from "We Render Thanks" by Nahum Waldman:

We must often revive the gladness of gratitude

And retrain our lips to utter words of thanks.

God's gifts often go unnoticed in our haste;

And disappointments may blind us to our blessings...

We give thanks for the beauty of nature and its gifts,

And pray that we may share as richly as we have received ...

We are grateful for love and the opening of hearts

Between husband and wife, parents and children.

We give thanks for our freedom, while knowing its family.

And recognize our obligation to nurture and protect it...

Enabling us to know truth from falsehood, right from wrong,

Disturbing our peace when the blessings we enjoy are denied to others,

When their need for justice and compassion is unfulfilled.

We give thanks to God who shares with us

A small spark of Divine glory and wisdom,

Involving us in the drama which is both God's and ours -

The partnership of completing the work of creation.

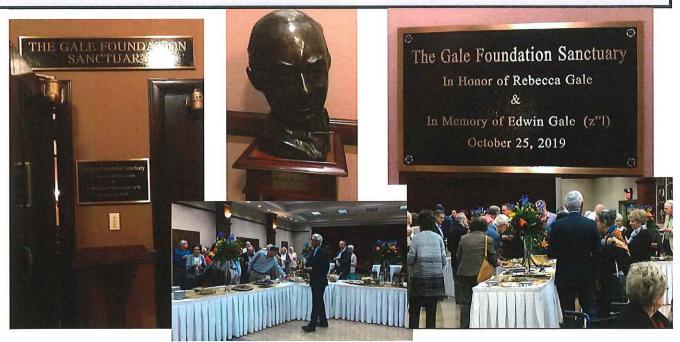

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Mathew D. Michaels

Many thanks to the Board of Trustees for providing the Oneg refreshments following Rosh Hashanah. Our congregation is truly blessed to have each of you volunteer your time, talents and goodies!

Also, thank you to those who provided the refreshments after the Sanctuary Rededication Service.

FROM OUR TEMPLE PRESIDENT

Temple Emanuel's Trio of Ingredients (Flexibility, Spirituality & Audacious Hospitality)

Wow is all I can say. Life around Temple Emanuel was very busy during October 2019. We started the month with Kol Nidre Services which were followed by Yom Kippur Services the next day. Thank you Rabbi Michaels for leading our High Holy Day services again this year. Your thoughtfulness and inspiring sermons were fantastic. We are so fortunate to have you during this period of transition. Dwight Peirce and Angela Pickering added much spirituality with their beautiful music, as well as Dr. Robert Kramer and Bobby Chapman for getting the "Temple Band" back together and sharing their musicality.

While I am thanking people I need to say Todah Robah to Sherry Horwitz and the many sisterhood members for providing a fabulous break the fast and Sukkot dinner. Both events were well attended and were much appreciated by all congregants.

We also had the sixth Annual Samuel Rosinger Humanitarian Award Dinner toward the end of October recognizing two outstanding women; Paula O'Neal and Rebecca "Becky" Gale, may her memory be a blessing. This stellar evening could not happen with out the help of the Award Dinner Committee. The Award Dinner Committee consisting of Ania Bender, Allison Nathan Getz, Beverly Hickman-Hay, Dr. Wayne Margolis, Iris Nathan, Lois Rutman, Gene Thomas, Cynthia Wolf and Emily Wheeler spent many months working to make this event successful. Thank you does not begin to express my gratitude for everyone's countless hours of work. There were also several other Temple members who also helped including Arlette Collins, Rita Davis, Esterlyn Dugan, Mike Getz, Bruce Hoffer, Brandy Johnson, Marilyn Manson-Hayes, Bruce Hoffer and Fern Roos. Your support of Temple Emanuel is to be commended. Thank you for answering "hineni" here I am. I can not forget to also thank our wonderful Temple staff Jane Kaulfus and Wilton Allen. Your countless hours of selfless devotion to Temple Emanuel are appreciated. You both are two of the crowning jewels in our Temple life.

Lastly as we begin to prepare for the Thanksgiving Holiday I would like to share a prayer of Thanksgiving:

As you join together to celebrate with family and friends, may you acknowledge and give thanks to the legacy of those who came before you in appreciation of religious freedom. May you remember that The United States is a nation of immigrants with a myraid of many languages, customs, stories and faiths. And as you pray, may you celebrate this great American festival renewed in your commitment to peace, harmony, and tranquility. Amen.

As always should you have any question please feel free to contact me.

TEMPLE EMANUEL SOCIAL JUSTICE UPDATE (NOVEMBER 2019)

Temple Emanuel Social Justice Committee (TESJ) has a tradition of makin' a mitzvah difference as part of Temple Emanuel's Love Thy Neighbor initiative. Here's what's cookin' on the TESJ Menu of Projects for 2019...filled with flexibility, spirituality and audacious hospitality, the key ingredients of President Cheryl's term.

- Disaster Relief, a tradition of Temple Emanuel: Following the impact of Tropical Storm Imelda on Southeast Texas, specifically on Congregants/Staff of Temple Emanuel, TESJ Committee decided to give $1,000.00 to Temple Emanuel for Confidential Distribution by President Cheryl Barenberg and President-Elect Dr. Wayne Margolis to Congregants/Staff. THANK YOU for your support of Temple Emanuel Social Justice Fund!
- The High Holiday Food Drive, a tradition of Temple Emanuel: To ALL who contributed food/water/monetary donations/travel-size toiletries, THANK YOU! The stage in Swerdlow-Roosth Social Hall is looking good with your donations! As of this date, total for checks turned in to Cynthia Wolf and/or Jane Kaulfus in Temple Office that are payable to Southeast Texas Food Bank is just over $300.00. Every dollar donated to Southeast Texas Food Bank is enough to feed a meal to 4 people. The monetary donations alone will help provide over 1200 meals! The exact totals will, of course, be in the December Bulletin, as there is also a formula for each pound of food/water donated! THANK YOU!
- Christmas Day at Some Other Place, a tradition of Temple Emanuel: There are two ways that we serve at SOP on December 25, 2019: (1) at Some Other Place for clients who dine in and (2) as Meals-on-Wheels Drivers to those SOP clients who are daily brought meals, including Christmas Day. And afterwards, our volunteers traditionally have lunch together at Luby's. To volunteer, PLEASE call Jane Kaulfus in Temple Office (409) 832-6131. THANK YOU!

We appreciate your support of your favorite ala carte options on our mitzvot menu!

Please Save the Dates for Upcoming Community Events

Tuesday, November 5, 2019: 17th Annual Harvest of Hope DATE/LOCATION have CHANGED because of Imeldal The 17th Harvest of Hope, which will honor Bishop Curtis J. Guillory, who has served ALL Southeast Texans as OUR Bishop since 2000, and benefiting Catholic Charities' NEW Social Justice Outreach, Market to HOPE...Help Other People Eat. According to Carolyn Fernandez, President/CEO of Catholic Charities of Southeast Texas, "In Jefferson County, 23% of our neighbors live in food insecure homes. This is significantly higher than the nationwide rate of 13%. More than 18,000 children live in these food insecure homes where their parents lack money and other resources to provide adequate and nutritious food needed for active healthy lives." Your support of Harvest of Hope will bring HOPE to food insecure families by way of Market to HOPE! To Sponsor or to purchase tickets or donate any amount, please call Catholic Charities: (409) 924-4400 NEW Location: Holiday Inn I10 and Walden Rd.

Thursday, November 14, 2019: 78th Annual St. Mark's Chili Supper & Bazaar benefiting Social Justice Outreach of St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Location: 680 Calder (near Downtown Beaumont). Times: Lunch 11:00am – 2:00pm and Dinner 5:00pm to 8:00pm. Freezer to freezer chili purchase option, please call (409) 832-3405

Sunday, November 24, 2019: Annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Service/Celebration with food donations benefiting Southeast Texas Food Bank and monetary donations benefiting Some Other Place. More will be shared in eblasts/weekly Shabbat Flyers.

THANK YOU for sharing details for future events with Cynthia Wolf at cwolf@gt.rr.com

Dear Friends of Temple Emanuel Sisterhood,

An additional THANK YOU for supporting the 5780/2019 Book of Remembrance and Yizkor Memorial Supplement...a Project of Temple Emanuel Sisterhood! The other Thank You's were in the October 2019 Bulletin.

 A full-page In Loving Memory Memorial Tribute was received from Louise and Stewart Rosenthal and Family. This page was an insert in the already printed Book of Remembrance.

Again, THANK YOU and L'Shanah Tovah Tikatevu!

Floral Fund

Please consider honoring the memory of your loved ones by sponsoring the Pulpit flowers for our Friday evening Shabbat Worship. Temple Emanuel observes the Yahrzeits of approximately 1,100 people during the course of the year. Your contribution to the Floral Fund will help beautify our sanctuary, our worship and add blessing to the memories of all of our loved ones and members who have died in years past.

The suggested minimum contribution to the Floral Fund is $25.00. Please make checks payable to:
