“GOD IN THE BOX”

A DOCUMENTARY FILM & INTERFAITH PANEL DIALOGUE WITH THE AUDIENCE

INTRODUCED AND CO-LED BY THE FILM’S CREATOR: NATHAN LANG
TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 2013 AT 7 PM AT TEMPLE EMANUEL

“God in the Box” is a documentary film, which explores the mystery and controversy behind what God looks like and means to us Americans in the 21st century. In the midst of today’s fractured and confusing claims on God, the film asserts two basic questions: What does God mean to you? What does God look like, to you?

“After reviewing the footage of 163-diverse Americans, from eight different cities and towns, it became obvious that our collective views, while quite different, have a common history.... Is there any way for all of us to coexist, with our different definitions?”

Nathan Lang, Writer, Director and Producer of “God in the Box”

WARNING: THE UNSCRIPTED NATURE OF THE DIALOGUE IN THE FILM ON OCCASION MAY NOT BE SUITABLE FOR CHILDREN UNDER AGE 14. PARENTAL DISCRETION IS ADVISED.

Community Interfaith Shabbat (Sabbath) Celebration

Friday, April 19, 2013 at 6 pm
at Temple Emanuel

Guest Speaker: Martin Cominsky,
Southwest Regional Director of the Anti-Defamation League

“ADL’S CENTENNIAL YEAR: IMAGINE A WORLD WITHOUT HATE”™

Recent events in our nation and our region remind us that incivility, ignorance, fear and prejudice continue to challenge our work to repair and improve our communities, and move us forward toward the “promised land.”

Community clergy will join Rabbi Joshua Taub for a special and creative Shabbat (Sabbath) worship service.

Visit: www.adl.org for more information about the ADL’s centennial celebration.

NEVER AGAIN: HEEDING THE WARNING SIGNS

“Seventy-five years ago, momentous changes were occurring in central Europe. Few understood the historic significance of the times, and fewer still saw these events as precursors to what would become one of humanity’s darkest hours.”

United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Our community observance will be an interfaith service involving clergy from across the community. Together we will consider some tough questions: Why did so many countries and individuals fail to respond to the warning signs? What can we learn from the few who chose to act, despite widespread indifference?
